

Barnes Park Violence Prevention Logic Model

Inputs	Activities	Short Term Outcomes	Intermediate Outcomes	Long Term Outcomes	Ultimate Impacts
Neighborhood Association time, focus DELTA FOCUS funds for park rehabilitation—equipment, landscape In-kind city funds for park rehabilitation—repaving roads, installing repurposed playground equipment, picnic tables, grills, trash cans and bike rack Volunteer hours	Volunteer work days Individual volunteer projects City and contractor work days Re-opening celebration event Neighborhood evaluation activities	the rehabilitated park is perceived by neighbors as a safe and engaging place park utilization increases families have access to safe, health-promoting recreational space community members report increased feelings of neighborhood pride community members report increased pro-social behavioral intentions (willingness to pick up trash, participate in meetings, volunteer events)	connectedness among neighbors is increased <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• opportunities for neighbors to model, and to observe positive relationship behaviors are increased</li> <li>• increased connectedness enables the transmission of positive relationship norms and also of social accountability for abusive behaviors</li> <li>• neighbors report an increased number of people upon whom they can rely for social support</li> </ul> family stress and conflict are reduced sense of pride/value in place supports sense of personal value among neighbors reducing motivations to exercise power over others in close relationships	reduced tolerance for norms and behaviors that are supportive of aggression towards others increased pro-social bystander behavior safe, engaged, positive community attracts increased economic investment Economic stress among neighbors is reduced	Reductions in rates of IPV among neighbors Reductions in rates of sexual violence among neighbors Reductions in rates of child abuse among neighbors Reductions in rates of youth violence among neighbors Reductions in rates of elder maltreatment among neighbors Reductions in rates of suicide among neighbors